

Electrical, Mechanical, Controls & Automation.

Electrical, Mechanical process Control and Automation engineering company.

With a highly skilled and specialised team of Electrical, Software, Design and Mechanical Engineers providing integrated automated solutions to a client base across Ireland.

We offer a bespoke turnkey service from initial consultation, design, manufacture, electrical and mechanical installation, to final commissioning, maintenance support, with Instrumentation & Calibrations services.

Our commitment to our clients extends beyond project completion as our in-house customer service team ensures access to 24-hour maintenance and technical support.

EMCA Premium Apprenticeship

Solas award winning employer, we offer the following bespoke Premium Apprenticeship Programmes, specifically designed to help you gain the experience and skills needed to develop to your full potential and pursue a career within EMCA. Proven track record with our apprentices winning apprentice of the year and All Ireland winning training programs.

Apprenticeship – Real life learning	Duration	Award
The Craft of Electrical	Minimum 4 years	Level 6 Advanced Certificate
The Craft of Electrical Instrumentation	Minimum 4 years	Level 6 Advanced Certificate
The Craft of Mechanical Automotive Maintenance Fitter (MAMF)	Minimum 4 years	Level 6 Advanced Certificate

Motivated, enthusiastic individuals, students, graduates looking to build or progress their skills, knowledge & careers within key engineering disciplines.

Upskill or transfer your previous skills, trades within a fast-growing company environment & engineering industries..

Clear career path progressions for Electricians, Mechanical maintenance fitters, I&C technicians, Design engineers, Project Mangers, Site supervisors, Field service engineers, Test & Commissioning engineers, panel build technicians, Software & Automation engineers.

Interested candidates should contact EMCA on 00353 (0)49 5552032 and are invited to submit their CV to HR at the address below, or via email to support@emca.ie.

EMCA, Rakane Road, Annalee, Kill, Cootehill, Co. Cavan.